

The The Wedding Party

Original title: Die De bloedbruiloft

It's his son's wedding and Hermann is determined to get his money's worth. A beautiful countryside restaurant on the German-Belgian border is the setting for the wedding banquet - only the best is good enough for the short-tempered Hermann and his clan. But it doesn't take much to turn the happy day into a disaster. Hermann orders his family to leave and star chef Franz Berger to put his bill somewhere where the sun never shines. However, Hermann has met his match in Franz, who promptly has the gates to the country inn sealed, imprisoning the bride and her mother-in-law, holding them to ransom. Hermann will have none of it and organises a siege to release the hostages. As night falls and a full moon rises, the sleepy country inn turns into a true battlefield.
