

The Trial

Original title: Het proces

Ronny Baudewyn and Paul Quirynen are two lawyers in the Belgian trial of the century. One of them is defending a victim's father whereas the other defends the criminal Marc Dutroux. For about four months both lawyers have been followed in the case of their life. But how difficult is it for them to stay a human being in a case which is so 'not human': the horror of a paedophile trial, the trial of a country, a century. Being a lawyer or a person, or both?
