

The Wall

Original title: The Wall

Jessica Comley is Border Patrol agent, charged with policing the US-Mexico border in Arizona, keeping out drugs and migrants. Despite the pressure of the work, and the apathy of her colleagues, Comley loves her job. She wants to be the best. She is ready for anything, and she mistrusts everyone, particularly the Tohono O'odham Native Americans. She suspects they are behind all the trafficking, takes every opportunity to beat them down. Then, in a moment of extreme pressure, she kills an injured migrant, a harmless man. And there are witnesses: her partner, a Native American and his grandson. From that point on, it will be her word against theirs.
