

Walking for Genna

Original title: Marcher pour Genna

Genna, the Ethiopian Christmas, takes place on the night of the 6th of January. During the weeks running up to that particular night, pilgrims from all corners embark on a journey that will take them to a place where the celebration is the most grandiose: Lalibela, the Ethiopian Jerusalem. Two Belgians, Frédéric and Olivier, set out from the northern part of the Simien mountains on a 23-day walk and become privileged witnesses of this walk of faith. Their march will take them through stunning landscapes in remote parts of the country. For Frédéric, a first-timer in Ethiopia, the beauty of the land is a revelation. For Olivier, who has been there 35 times already, it is a testimony to his unadulterated love of the country.
