

What About You?

Original title: En met u?

Amid the chaos of a family gathering, Babette (35) faces a mountain of questions about her job, her love life and her future. Triggered into doubt, Babette tries to escape for a cigarette on the terrace. When her lighter turns out to be empty, she goes out to buy a new one and stumbles upon a store that claims to have 'everything'. The aisles carry an infinite array of products that become more and more absurd, reflecting Babette's tangled thoughts. During an attempt to escape, the aisles collapse and Babette gets knocked out cold by the products. She is transported back to the family gathering, where she shares a brief moment of connection, reflection and peace with her grandmother.
