

Whisky: The Islay Edition

Original title: Whisky: the Islay Edition

Whisky: The Islay Edition yearns for a sofa and a glass of whisky as it transports the viewer to the sanctum of the Scottish gold. The film doesn't just tell us about whisky, it evokes the fineness of the liquor, the art of tasting, the craft of distillation, the history of the distilleries and the richness of the isle of Islay itself, home to eight world renowned whisky distilleries. The complete process of making whisky is divided into eight parts with each distillery representing a part of this process... In order of appearance Ardbeg, Kilchoman, Bowmore, Bunnahabhain, Caol Ila, Laphroaig, Lagavulin and Bruichladdich.

CREDITS

DIRECTOR: Olav Verhoeven

PRODUCER: Olav Verhoeven

WRITER: Fran Bambust, Fabian Molleman, Bob Minnekeer

CAST: Andrew Brown, Michael Heads, John Campbell, Jim McEwan, Eddie MacAffer

EDITING: remo beutels

PHOTOGRAPHY: Olav Verhoeven

TECHNICAL SPECS

RUNNING TIME: 60'

ASPECT RATIO: 16:9

COLOUR: Colour

CONTACT & SALES

CREATION DETAILS

TYPE: Film

PRODUCTION SHARE: Majority Flemish Production

YEAR OF PRODUCTION: 2010

PRODUCTION STATUS: Completed

ORIGINAL TITLE: Whisky: the Islay Edition

ORIGINAL LANGUAGE: English

MORE INFO

flandersimage.com

flanders®

 Flanders
State of the Art