

Woman Between Wolf and Dog

Original title: Een vrouw tussen hond en wolf

The story of a woman's love for two young men. Antwerp, 1940. Lieve marries Adriaan, a Flemish idealist who is drawn towards Germany by the occupation to the Eastern Front. She shelters the resistant François in 1942 and discovers with him what love is really about. At the liberation, she's reunited with a bruised and sentenced Adriaan. In spite of her passion for François, she cannot bring herself to abandon him in these trying circumstances. But she slowly drifts away from her husband, while she senses that François, who is monopolized by his career, is slowly drifting away from her.

CREDITS

DIRECTOR: André Delvaux

PRODUCER: Jean-Claude Batz

CAST: Bert André, Jenny Tanghe, Rutger Hauer, Senne Rouffaer, Marie-Christine Barrault

TECHNICAL SPECS

RUNNING TIME: 111'

ASPECT RATIO: 1.33:1 (4:3)

RELEASE FORMAT: 35mm

MORE INFO

flandersimage.com

CONTACT & SALES

CREATION DETAILS

TYPE: Film

PRODUCTION SHARE: Majority Flemish Production

GENRE: Drama, War, Historical

YEAR OF PRODUCTION: 1979

PRODUCTION STATUS: Completed

ORIGINAL TITLE: Een vrouw tussen hond en wolf

ORIGINAL LANGUAGE: French